The Relationship Between the Hospitality Industry and the SDGs

The hospitality industry—which includes food service and tourism—is closely linked to the SDGs. This industry plays a crucial role in global economic, social, and environmental development.

The hospitality industry influences many of the 17 SDGs, especially in areas like zero hunger, clean water and sanitation, decent work and economic growth. Today, we will focus on a few specific goals to explore their connection with the hospitality industry.

SDGs2 : Zero Hunger

1. Promote local sourcing of food and reduce food waste
2. Offer nutritious and sustainable food options in restaurants and institutional kitchens
3. Community Engagement

Nutritious & Sustainable Food + Community Engagement

In Kitchens:

- Use fresh, local, and seasonal ingredients.
 - Focus on plant-based, whole foods.
- Practice eco-friendly cooking (save energy and water).

In Communities:

- Organize food drives and donations.
 - Grow food in community gardens.
 - Teach healthy cooking.
- Volunteer at food banks or meal centers.

SDGs 6 Clean water and sanitation

1. Ensure availability and sustainable management of water and sanitation for all
2. Improve water quality and sanitation infrastructure
3. Increase water-use efficiency across all sectors

Global challenge: Billions of people still lack access to clean water and sanitation

SDGs 6 Clean water and sanitation

Department of restaurant, hotel and institutional management can implement:

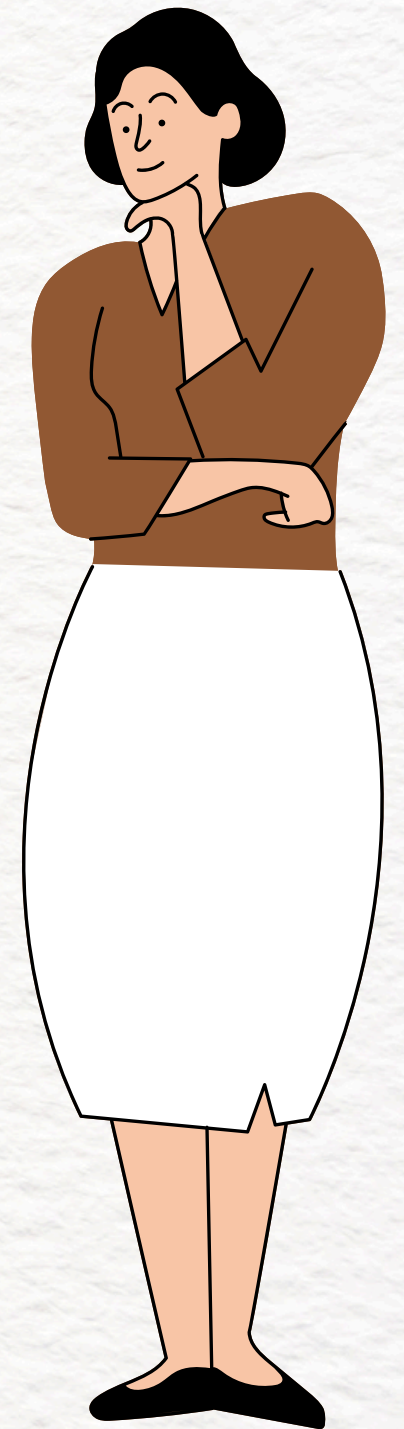

1. Water-Resource Management & Water-Saving Technology Education
2. Implement Sustainable Cleaning & Sanitation Practices
3. Integrate the Water Footprint Concept into Menu Design & Procurement

SDGs 8 Decent Work and Economic Growth

Promoting Decent Work: Creating Better Workplaces

- Fair wages and safe environments
- Employee training programs
- Inclusive work culture
- Respect for workers' rights

SDGs 8 Decent Work and Economic Growth

Supporting Local Economies:
RHIM as an Economic Driver

- Using local ingredients
- Hiring from the local community
- Supporting small businesses
- Promoting local culture
